

CONSULTATION ON THE MONEYLENDERS BILL 2008

20th AUGUST – 12th SEPTEMBER 2008

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 The Moneylenders Act (“MLA”), which was enacted in 1959, was originally intended as a piece of social legislation to safeguard borrowers from unscrupulous moneylenders that charge exorbitant interest.

1.2 Over the years, the moneylending business landscape has changed significantly. Thus, a major review of the MLA was necessary to ensure that the laws governing moneylending are updated, relevant and in keeping with changes in consumer credit, business financing, the moneylending industry as a whole and the principles underlying the regulation of the financial industry in general.

1.3 The Ministry of Law (“MinLaw”) and the Registry of Moneylenders (“ROM”) have completed a review of the MLA and are proposing the introduction of a Moneylenders Bill 2008 (“MLB”) to repeal and replace the current MLA. A copy of the MLB is attached.

1.4 MinLaw and ROM invite interested parties to provide their feedback on the MLB. The consultation period ends on Friday, 12 September 2008. You may send your feedback in electronic or hard copy form to :

2. THE SCOPE OF THE MLB

I. Clarifying the moneylending activities to be licensed

2.1 The MLB will cover the licensing and regulation of moneylenders providing all forms of loans to members of the public as private individuals.

2.2 The MLB will make it clear that persons that are licensed, approved, registered, or regulated by the Monetary Authority of Singapore; persons who grant staff loans, and persons who grant loans to corporations or loans to accredited investors within the meaning of section 4A of the Securities and Futures Act (Cap. 289), will be excluded from the application of the MLB as “excluded moneylenders” [Clause 2 of MLB]. Excluded moneylenders will not need to seek exemption from the application of the MLB.

2.3 The MLB will retain the provision in the MLA to allow for the exemption of lenders which do not fall within the list of “excluded moneylenders”. These lenders will be termed “exempt moneylenders” [Clause 34 of MLB].

II. Modernising moneylending operations

2.4 Arising from its origin as a piece of social legislation, the MLA currently has tight controls on business location, advertising, interest rates, non-interest fees, how loans should be disbursed, how payments from borrowers should be accepted and how accounts are to be kept. While continuing to keep moneylenders in check through a robust licensing and regulatory regime, the MLB proposes to relax some current controls to facilitate moneylending in the modern credit economy [Parts I to III of MLB].

(a) Location

2.5 The MLA currently allows a licensed moneylender to operate from only one location. The MLB proposes to allow licensed moneylenders to operate from more than one location, with the prior approval of the Registrar of Moneylenders (“the Registrar”) who may impose conditions for the business to be conducted at the additional location(s). Each additional location will attract a separate processing fee [Clause 10 of MLB].

(b) Advertising

2.6 The MLA imposes strict restrictions on advertising by licensed moneylenders, which financial institutions do not face. The MLB proposes to allow advertising subject to conditions that the Registrar may impose. While licensed moneylenders will be free to conduct their advertising and marketing activities, it will be an offence for a licensed moneylender to issue a false or misleading advertisement (including on the Internet) [Clause 15 of MLB].

(c) Interest rate

2.7 The MLA currently imposes a maximum interest rate which a licensed moneylender can charge, i.e. 18% per annum for unsecured loans and 12% per annum for secured loans. The MLB proposes to decriminalise the charging of interest above the prescribed maximum interest rates and remove the prohibition against the charging of compound interest, in line with loans made by financial institutions. The MLB also proposes to give the Minister the discretion to prescribe different interest rates for different classes of loans or borrowers, bearing in mind the need for protection from possible exploitation by moneylenders for borrowers who have low or no income. With these measures, moneylenders will have greater flexibility to determine the interest charges based on market forces and their risk assessment [Clause 22 of MLB].

(d) Non interest-related fees

2.8 The MLA makes loan contracts illegal where fees other than legal fees and fees payable by law, such as stamp duties, are charged by a licensed moneylender. The MLB proposes to give the Minister the discretion and power to prescribe the types and quantum of fees which may be charged. This will bring the business practices of licensed moneylenders more in line with the market practices of financial institutions [Clause 21 of MLB].

(e) Mode of disbursing loans

2.9 The MLA makes a loan contract unenforceable if the loan was not disbursed by way of an 'account payee' crossed cheque made payable to the borrower. The MLB proposes to remove this outdated provision so as to give licensed moneylenders the flexibility of disbursing loans by means other than a crossed cheque, for example, via cash, or inter-bank or other electronic funds transfer.

(f) Mode of repaying loans

2.10 The MLA makes it an offence for a licensed moneylender to accept any payment amount from a borrower exceeding $10 in any form other than a cheque, money order or postal order. The MLB proposes to remove this provision, so as to allow a borrower to repay any amount in cash or electronic funds transfer. Where payment is made in cash by or on behalf of the borrower, the safeguard for the borrower will be a requirement for the licensed moneylender to issue a receipt which is to be acknowledged [Clause 20 of MLB].

(g) Keeping of accounts

2.11 The MLA requires licensed moneylenders to keep accounts of their loans in a book paginated and bound in such manner so as not to facilitate the elimination or interpolation or substitution of pages. The MLB proposes to remove this requirement so as to allow moneylenders to keep their accounts in electronic form [Clause 23 of MLB].

III. Improving the regulatory framework

(a) Enhancing the powers of the Registrar in licensing

2.12 The MLB proposes to enhance the licensing regime by giving the Registrar additional grounds for refusing to issue, revoking and suspending a licence, and by empowering the Registrar to impose and amend conditions of licence [Clauses 5, 6, 7, and 9 of MLB].

(b) Raising the standards of business practices

2.13 The MLB proposes to require licensed moneylenders to maintain certain standards in their professional business practices as follows:

- (a) Loans to be granted only on application by a borrower in writing [Clause 16 of MLB].
- (b) No granting of unsolicited loans [Clause 16 of MLB].
- (c) To inform a prospective borrower of the terms of loan before granting the loan [Clause 18 of MLB].
- (d) To issue a statement of account to borrowers twice yearly [Clause 20 of MLB].
- (e) To obtain an acknowledgement by the borrower of the receipt of cash payment [Clause 20 of MLB].

2.14 These will be in addition to the existing requirements for licensed moneylenders to issue their borrowers with a promissory note duly completed, and to issue a receipt upon any cash payment made by their borrowers.

(c) Enhancing the regulatory framework

2.15 In modernising the current regulatory framework governing the moneylending business, the MLB proposes to give the Registrar greater investigative powers, including powers to inspect without notice premises, documents and records, make a copy of documents produced or inspected, take photographs of the premises, seize and remove from the premises any document or record or computer or data storage equipment, and compel the attendance of persons for investigations and the recording of statements [Clause 24]. The Registrar will also be able to issue directions to moneylenders [Clause 25 of MLB].

IV. Strengthening the enforcement framework for moneylending

2.16 The MLB proposes to introduce an offence for a person to hold out to others that he carries on a moneylending business where he is neither a licensed excluded or exempt moneylender [Clause 13 of MLB].

2.17 In addition, a person who allows an unlicensed moneylender to use any telecommunication service subscribed in his name or purchased by him will be presumed to be assisting in unlicensed moneylending. Furthermore, the offence of harassing, threatening or abusing a borrower or his surety will apply to all moneylenders, and if the offence is committed by abetting any person to cause damage to property or hurt to another person, the offender may be punished with caning in addition to a term of imprisonment [Clause 27 of MLB].

(5) Subject to subsection (6), there shall be no refund of any licence fee paid to the Registrar in the event that a licence is cancelled, revoked or suspended or when the licensee ceases to carry on business at any time prior to the expiry of the licence.

30 (6) The Registrar may, where he considers appropriate, refund or remit the whole or part of any licence fee paid or payable under this Act.

Revocation or suspension of licence

9.—(1) The Registrar may revoke a licence, or suspend it for such period as he considers appropriate, if he is satisfied —

(b) that there exists a ground on which the Registrar may refuse to issue a licence under section 7, whether in relation to the licensee or his principal.

(2) The Registrar shall, before revoking or suspending any licence under subsection (1), give the licensee notice in writing of his intention to do so, specifying a date, not less than 21 days after the date of the notice, upon which the revocation or suspension shall take effect unless the licensee shows cause to the Registrar as to why the licence should not be revoked or suspended.

(3) Where, after the licensee has shown cause under subsection (2), the Registrar decides to revoke or suspend a licence, he shall notify the licensee of his decision in writing and specify a date, not less than 14 days from the date of the notice, upon which the revocation or suspension shall take effect.

(4) The licensee may, within 14 days of the notice under subsection (3), appeal in writing against the revocation or suspension to the Minister and the decision of the Minister shall be final.

5 (5) If the licensee appeals to the Minister under subsection (4), the decision appealed against shall not take effect unless it is confirmed by the Minister, or the appeal is for any reason dismissed by the Minister or is withdrawn.

Approval of places of business

15 10.—(1) An applicant for the issue of a licence or a licensee who intends to commence the business of moneylending at any new place or places of business shall, before commencing the business of moneylending at the place or places, apply in writing to the Registrar for approval to do so.

25 (b) the applicant has placed a deposit of $20,000 with the Accountant-General as security for the proper conduct of his business, in such form as the Registrar may determine, for each additional place of business for which approval is sought; and

30 (c) the Registrar is of the view that the place of business is suitable for a business of moneylending to be conducted in that place and that it is not contrary to the public interest for a business of moneylending to be conducted in that place.

(4) The Registrar may at any time, by notice in writing to the licensee, vary or revoke any of the existing conditions of his approval or impose new conditions.

35 (5) Where the approval of the Registrar is granted to a firm, the approval shall be deemed to be granted to every partner of the firm actively conducting the business of moneylending of that firm in Singapore.

5 (6) The Registrar may revoke his approval or suspend his approval for such period as he considers appropriate if he is satisfied that the licensee has contravened any condition of approval imposed under this section.

10 (7) The Registrar shall, before revoking or suspending his approval under subsection (6), give the licensee notice in writing of his intention to do so, specifying a date, not less than 21 days after the date of the notice, upon which the revocation or suspension shall take effect unless the licensee shows cause to the Registrar as to why the approval should not be revoked or suspended.

15 (8) If, after the licensee has shown cause under subsection (7), the Registrar decides to proceed to revoke or suspend his approval, he shall notify the licensee of his decision in writing and specify a date, not less than 14 days from the date of the notice, upon which the revocation or suspension shall take effect.

(9) The licensee may, within 14 days of the notice under subsection (8), appeal in writing against the revocation or suspension to the Minister and the decision of the Minister shall be final.

20 (10) If the licensee appeals to the Minister under subsection (9), the decision appealed against shall not take effect unless it is confirmed by the Minister, or the appeal is for any reason dismissed by the Minister or is withdrawn.

25 (11) Any decision of the Registrar to revoke or suspend his approval under this section shall not affect any moneylending transaction entered into before the decision is made.

(12) Any licensee who —

- 30 (a) commences the business of moneylending at a place of business without the approval of the Registrar; or

Publication of lists

25 12. The Registrar may from time to time cause to be published, in such manner as he may determine —

(a) a list of all licensees and such of their particulars as the Registrar may determine; and

(b) a list of such persons granted an exemption by the Minister under section 34, and such of their particulars and the conditions of their exemption, as the Registrar may determine.

Unlicensed moneylending

13.—(1) Any person who contravenes, or who assists in the contravention of, section 5(1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —

20 (b) has appointed a licensee or an exempt moneylender to act as his agent to carry on a business of moneylending in Singapore; and

(c) does not himself carry on a business of moneylending in Singapore.

25 (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), where the bank account or automated teller machine card of any person or a telecommunication service subscribed in the name of or purchased by any person is proved to the satisfaction of the court to have been used to facilitate the carrying on of the business of moneylending by an unlicensed moneylender, that person shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to have assisted in the contravention of section 5(1).

30 (5) In this section, unless the context otherwise requires —

“telecommunication service” has the same meaning as under the Telecommunications Act (Cap. 323);

“unlicensed moneylender” means a moneylender —

(a) who is presumed to be a moneylender under section 3; and

(b) who is not a licensee or an exempt moneylender.

Other offences under this Part

14.—(1) Any person who, in connection with an application for the issue or renewal of a licence —

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to repeal and re-enact the Moneylenders Act (Cap. 188) for the following purposes:

- (a) to clarify the types of moneylending activities that would be regulated;
- (b) to update the Act to facilitate moneylending activities within a modern regulatory framework; and
- (c) to enhance the powers of the Registrar of Moneylenders (the Registrar) in relation to the licensing of moneylenders and the enforcement of the Act.

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Part I (comprising clauses 1 to 4) contains the preliminary provisions of the Bill.

Clause 1 relates to the short title and commencement.

Clause 2 defines certain terms used in the Bill.

Clause 3 sets out the circumstances under which a presumption arises that a person is a moneylender.

Clause 4 provides for the appointment of a Registrar of Moneylenders, and Deputy and Assistant Registrars of Moneylenders.

PART II

LICENSING OF MONEYLENDERS

Part II (comprising clauses 5 to 14) contains the provisions for the licensing of moneylenders and the related offences.

Clause 5 sets out the procedure for obtaining a licence under the Bill, and empowers the Registrar to issue a licence with or without conditions or to refuse to do so.

Clause 6 sets out the procedure for renewing a licence.

Clause 7 sets out the grounds on which the Registrar may refuse to issue or renew a licence, including a licence to carry on moneylending business as an agent for a principal. An applicant who is aggrieved by the refusal of the Registrar to issue him a licence or renew his licence may appeal to the Minister.

Clause 8 provides for the payment of licence fees, which are payable in respect of every place of business of a licensee. Different fees may be prescribed for different classes or descriptions of licences.

Clause 9 sets out the grounds on which the Registrar may revoke or suspend a licence. Any revocation or suspension of a licence will not affect any moneylending transaction entered into before the date of such revocation or suspension. An aggrieved licensee has a right of appeal to the Minister.

Clause 10 sets out the procedure by which a person obtains the approval of the Registrar to carry on moneylending business at any place. The Registrar may refuse to grant his approval if he is of the view that a proposed place is unsuitable for a moneylending business to be conducted in that place. The Registrar may also revoke or suspend any such approval. A licensee who is aggrieved by such revocation or suspension has a right of appeal to the Minister.

Clause 11 requires a licensee to obtain the Registrar's approval in relation to certain changes specified in the clause, such as, a change in the business name of the licensee. A licensee is also required to report the withdrawal of any key person, as specified in the clause, within 14 days after the change.

Clause 12 provides for the publication of lists of all licensees and persons granted any exemption under clause 34 by the Registrar from time to time.

Clause 13 makes it an offence for any person to carry on, or hold himself out as carrying on, moneylending business in Singapore unless he is authorised to do so by a licence, or he is an excluded moneylender or exempt moneylender. It is also an offence for any person to assist in the commission of such an offence. A contract for a loan from an unlicensed moneylender, and any guarantee or security given for such a loan, will be unenforceable.

Clause 14 contains certain other offences arising from the provisions of the Part, such as, the provision of false or misleading information to the Registrar in connection with an application for the issue or renewal of a licence, or the carrying on of moneylending business under a name that is not a business name authorised by a licence under the Bill.

PART III

REGULATION OF BUSINESS OF MONEYLENDING, ENFORCEMENT AND PROCEEDINGS

Part III (comprising clauses 15 to 29) contains the main provisions for the regulation of moneylending business, the enforcement powers that may be exercised, and the powers of the court in relation to certain transactions.

Clause 15 makes it an offence for a licensee to knowingly or recklessly publish or cause to be published any advertising or marketing material in any form (including electronic or web-based materials) or any business letter, circular or other document which contains false or misleading information.

Clause 16 prohibits licensees from granting loans or approval for loans where the borrower had not made an application for the loan.

Clause 17 re-enacts, with amendments, section 14 of the Moneylenders Act (Cap. 188) that is to be repealed by clause 39 (repealed Act), to simplify the requirements as to signages at the places of business of a licensee.

Clause 18 requires a licensee to inform a borrower in writing, before the grant of a loan to him, of the terms of the loan. Any contravention of this requirement will be an offence, and the loan granted in contravention of this requirement will be void and unenforceable.

Clause 19 prescribes certain requirements relating to the form of the contract in respect of a loan granted by a licensee, and the manner in which the loan is to be paid by the licensee. Any note that is not in compliance with the clause will be void and the loan will be unenforceable.

Clause 20 mandates the supply of statements of account by licensees to borrowers in accordance with the specified requirements, and the manner in which receipts are to be issued for any cash payment made by or on behalf of a borrower.

Clause 21 empowers the Minister to prescribe the types or limits of the costs, charges and expenses that a licensee may impose in respect of every loan granted by him (defined as permitted fees under clause 2). The clause further provides that the imposition of any amount other than or in excess of the permitted fees will be unenforceable and may be recovered by the borrower, whether as a debt or by way of set off against the loan and interest payable.

Clause 22 authorises a court to re-open moneylending transactions and to give the debtor relief where the interest is excessive or the transaction is unconscionable or substantially unfair. A debtor may apply to the court for relief at any time and not merely when proceedings have already been instituted against him by a moneylender. The clause further provides that the Official Assignee may exercise the same powers as the court under the clause when dealing with a proof of debt filed by a moneylender in the bankruptcy of a borrower. The clause also empowers the Minister to prescribe the maximum interest rate for any loan granted by a licensee.

Clause 23 requires every licensee to keep regular accounts of each loan, and to submit quarterly statements to the Registrar. The accounts and other documents specified must be kept for a period of at least 5 years. Where the documents in relation to a specific transaction are required by the Registrar in connection with a criminal investigation under the Act, then the documents must be kept for such longer time as may be required.

Clause 24 empowers the Registrar or an officer authorised by him to enter premises used by a moneylender to carry on business in order to inspect the premises and any document or record found on the premises, and to require a moneylender to provide information or documents, among others.

Clause 25 provides the Registrar with a general power to issue directions to any moneylender, whether or not licensed under the Bill, for the carrying out of the provisions of the Bill.

Clause 26 makes it an offence for certain persons, including a licensee or an exempt moneylender, to fraudulently induce or attempt to induce any person to borrow money.

Clause 27 re-enacts section 33 of the repealed Act, to make it an offence for any moneylender or any person assisting such a moneylender to harass a debtor or to beset his resident, etc., which is punishable with caning in certain circumstances.

Clause 28 re-enacts section 34 of the repealed Act to empower a court imposing a fine under the Bill.

Clause 29 re-enacts section 35 of the repealed Act to set out the powers of entry, inspection and seizure of police officers without warrant under the Bill.

PART IV

MISCELLANEOUS

Part IV (comprising clauses 30 to 36) contains the miscellaneous provisions.

Clause 30 deems the offences under clause 13 (relating to unlicensed moneylending) and clause 27 (relating to harassment of debtors) as seizable and non-bailable offences.

Clause 31 re-enacts section 35A of the repealed Act to provide for the District Court to have jurisdiction to try offences under the Bill and to impose the full penalty or punishment in respect of the offence notwithstanding the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68).

Clause 32 re-enacts section 35B of the repealed Act, which relates to the liability of officers, partners or members where an offence under the Bill is committed by a body corporate, a firm or an association.

Clause 33 empowers the Registrar, the Commissioner of Police or any police officer authorised in writing by the Commissioner of Police to compound offences under the Bill which are prescribed to be compoundable offences.

Clause 34 empowers the Minister to grant or extend exemptions from any or all of the provisions of the Bill, and to impose or vary conditions of exemption.

Clause 35 empowers the Minister to make rules for the purposes of the Bill, which may apply to any moneylender, whether licensed or exempted under the Bill.

Clause 36 repeals the Moneylenders Act (Cap. 188), and sets out the transitional and savings provisions arising from the repeal of the Act.

EXPENDITURE OF PUBLIC MONEY

This Bill will not involve the Government in any extra financial expenditure.
