

GUIDE FOR Buyers in contracts with developers

Relief period ended on 30 Jun 2021

Do you qualify for relief?

- ✓ In a contract with a housing, commercial or industrial developer (private developers or Government agencies):
 - Option to Purchase (OTP);
 - Sale and Purchase (S&P) Agreement; or
 - Agreement for Lease (AFL)
- ✓ Entered into contract before 25 March 2020
- ✓ Unable to make payment on 1 February 2020 or later, due to COVID-19:
 - Payment required upon exercising the OTP; or
 - Payment due under the S&P Agreement / AFL

The Act does not apply if your case has any of the following factors:

- ✗ Contracts where seller is not a developer (e.g. reseller)
- ✗ Inability to make payment for reasons unrelated to COVID-19
- ✗ Payments due before 1 February 2020
- ✗ OTP booking fee already forfeited, or S&P Agreement / AFL already terminated

What does the relief do?

If you serve a Notification for Relief, then, up to 30 June 2021*:

- Booking fee or other consideration paid under OTP cannot be forfeited
- S&P Agreement / AFL cannot be terminated
- The developer cannot impose new charges, increase charges or interest rates beyond what is provided for in the contract
- The late payment interest and charges for arrears accrued between 1 February 2020 and 30 June 2021 under an S&P Agreement will be capped at an amount equal to 5% per annum of simple interest on the arrears

* The Ministry of Law has extended the relief period from 31 March 2021 to 30 June 2021.

Take note

- The relevant payments (e.g. down-payment, progress payments) under the S&P Agreement / AFL continue to accrue and remain payable after 30 June 2021
- If you terminate the S&P Agreement / AFL, the developer may still forfeit payments, if such a course of action is provided for in the S&P Agreement / AFL

How to get relief?

Serve a Notification for Relief on the developer, using the form at www.mlaw.gov.sg/covid19-relief/notification-for-relief. The relief applies after the Notification is served.

You should also take the chance to re-examine your ability to make the necessary payments. If you still intend to purchase the property, you should negotiate an extension of the OTP or a new payment schedule with the developer. If your OTP is with a licensed housing developer, you may also have to seek approval for the extension from the Controller of Housing via email at ura_coh_registry@ura.gov.sg.

What if the developer does not agree?

The developer may not agree that relief applies, and may wish to forfeit your booking fee, or terminate the S&P Agreement / AFL.

If you cannot agree, either of you may apply for an Assessor from the Ministry of Law to make a determination. Applications must be made by 30 June 2021 for S&P Agreements / AFL, or 31 August 2021 for OTPs. The determination will aim to be fair to both parties. The determination by the Assessor is binding on the parties, and is not appealable.
